July 11th Wednesday — 1804

Was assassinated by the Bandit Aaron Burr, Vice President of the United States, Alexander Hamilton Esq; the intimate & confidential Friend of the Great and Good Washington.

He was superior to avarice, of a persevering rectitude of principle, and unmoved by fear.

The People of the United States have been greatly benefitted by his wisdom his abilities, and his exertions. Remuneration is now, alas! out of their Power.

N.B. He died the day following at 2 o'clock. P.M. & was buried on Saturday Magellan is the first who, in the year 1519, sailed round the world in the space of 1124 days. Fifty-eight years after, Sir Francis Drake did the same in 1056 days; and twenty years after him, Thomas Cavendish made the same voyage in 777 days. In our days the celebrated Captain Cook and others have performed it in less time.

The phenomenon of the electric shock was discovered by Cuneus at Leyden, the beginning of the year 1749. The same experiment was previously made in Germany, in 1745, by Kleist. We may see, lib. ii. that Pliny had even then a knowledge of the electric fire.

DIRECTIONS FOR MARINERS.

MR. William Lord, of Stonington-Point, has erected an iron ſpear, about 13 feet long, with a white vane on the top, upon the rock of Latimer, in Fiſher's-Iſland-Sound. The deepeſt channel is to the northward of the rock. This gentleman has it in contemplation, if ſuitable encouragement ſhould be given by gentlemen from the eaſtward and weſtward (who are owners of navigation, and are conſtantly paſſing the Sound) to erect a ſpear upon what is called The Tail of Watch-Hill-Reef—another upon Katumacut-Rock, upon the ſame Reef—one upon Ellis'-Reef, which lies off Ram-Iſland, and is almoſt in the middle of the Sound. Theſe rocks are ſeldom, any of them, out of water, and much in the way of Coaſters up and down the Sound, who are unacquainted.

LINCOLN COUNTY. [Incorporated 1760.]

1716, June 13.	‡ Georgetown, Mark L. Hill	170

‡ Georgetown is at the mouth of Kennebeck River, is ſurrounded by navigable waters, excepting about two miles of land; and is fifteen miles ſouth of Wiſcaſſet, formerly called Pownalborough, and naturally lies in three diviſions. The Peninſula, or Neck, called Small Point, is on the weſt ſide, and on the main, and contains about half the land and population. Arrowſeag Iſland contains about 20,000 acres, or one fourth of the land and inhabitants, and the meeting-houſe. Parker's Iſland, or Parker's Iſland, contains as much, or about 28,000 acres. Stage-Iſland contains about 6 acres.

The Managers meet quarterly on the 2d Friday in each month, at the Sign of Good Samaritan, No. 13, Cornhill.

N. B. The Southern District comprehends all the south part of the town from the south side of Winter and Summer Streets.—The Middle District from thence to the Mill-Bridge, including West-Boston.—The Northern District, all the north part of the town from the Mill-Bridge.

The above Inſtitution, though yet in its infancy, has afforded the means of relief to many neceſſitous perſons, among others, whoſe feelings would have been hurt by an application for aſſiſtance from the Alms-Houſe; as they are, by this charity, attended, free of any expenſe, by an able Phyſician, either at their own houſes, or at the Diſpenſary, as the caſe may require, and furniſhed with whatever medicine they may need, and with wine, if neceſſary.

(a) The deſign of this Society is to relieve and aſſiſt thoſe objects of compaſſion, whoſe circumſtances may require relief in a manner different from that which is by law provided for the ſupport and employment of the poor; comprehending therein, the widow and the fatherleſs, the deſtitute and helpleſs ſtranger, and all, who by ſickneſs, infirmity, or misfortune, may be reduced to indigence.

Summary of the Method of Treatment to be uſed with Perſons apparently dead from Drowning, &c.

CONVEY the perſon to the neareſt convenient houſe, with his head raiſed: Strip and dry him as quick as poſſible; clean the mouth and noſtrils from froth and mud —If a child, let him be placed between two perſons, naked, in a hot bed—If an adult, lay him on a hot blanket or bed, and, in cold weather, near a fire—in warm weather, the air ſhould be freely admitted into the room. The body is next to be gently rubbed with warm woollen cloths, ſprinkled with ſpirits, if at hand, otherwiſe dry. A heated warming-pan may be now lightly moved over the back, properly covered with a blanket; and the body, if of a child, is to be gently ſhook every few minutes: Whilſt theſe means are uſing, one or two aſſiſtants are to be employed in blowing up tobacco-ſmoke into the fundament, with the inſtrument provided for the purpoſe, or a tobacco-pipe, if that cannot be had—the bowl filled with tobacco and properly lighted, being covered with a handkerchief, or piece of linen, ſo as to defend the mouth of the aſſiſtant in blowing: Bathe the breaſt with hot rum; and perſiſt in the uſe of theſe means for ſeveral hours. If no ſigns of life ſhould then appear, let the body be kept warm ſeveral hours longer, with hot bricks, or veſſels of hot water, applied to the palms of the hands, and ſoles of the feet, for a longer or ſhorter time, as the circumſtances of the caſe may be.

The too cuſtomary method of rolling on a barrel, ſuſpending by the feet, and every other violent mode of agitation, particularly in removing the body from the water, ſhould be moſt carefully avoided.

The above mentioned method of treatment is to be made uſe of with vigour for ſeveral hours, although no favourable circumſtances ſhould ariſe; for it is a vulgar and dangerous opinion, to ſuppoſe perſons are irrecoverable, becauſe life does not ſoon make its appearance; and upon this opinion, an immenſe number of the ſeemingly dead have been committed to the grave, who might have been reſtored to life by reſolution and perſeverance in the above plan of treatment.

Jonathan Lambert, Benjamin Carpenter & John Osgood.

This Society consists of such as have actually navigated the seas near or beyond the Cape of Good-Hope or round Cape-Horn, as masters or commanders of vessels, and such as have been factors or supercargoes of vessels employed in the East-India trade. It was instituted for the purpose of collecting together such observations, discoveries, books, papers, charts and valuable publications in every language, as might tend to facilitate the navigation of the Eastern and Southern Oceans. Every member returning from sea, is bound to present to the Society an abstract of the journal of his voyage, and to communicate, in writing, his observations of the bearings and distances of all capes and headlands; the latitude and longitude of islands, rocks and shoals; unusual occurrences; storms and accidents; with all other observations which he may judge useful to be recorded. The Museum of the Society already exhibits a handsome collection of curiosities.

Rhode Iſland College, (which name may be altered when any generous benefactor ariſes, who, by his liberal donations ſhall be entitled to give it another) is ſituated in the town of Providence, and is a large and elegant building, on a hill to the eaſt of the town, which renders it delightful by commanding an extenſive, variegated proſpect of the country adjacent; the edifice is of brick, 150 feet long, and 55 broad, four ſtories high, and contains 60 rooms. Five hundred and ninety perſons have been graduated there ſince its inſtitution, although the ſtudies were interrupted by the College being uſed by the French and American troops for an hoſpital and barracks, from 1776 to 1782. It is now very flouriſhing. They have a library of about 3000 vols. of valuable ancient and modern authors. The philoſophical apparatus is in a very good ſtate, fitted to give a full courſe of experiments. [Sept. 1803.]

CONVENTION

Of the CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS in the Commonwealth of Maſſachuſetts.

THEIR Meeting is held in Boſton, in the afternoon of the laſt Wedneſday in May (or day of Election) annually; and on the following day at noon, after tranſacting the uſual buſineſs of Convention, a ſermon is delivered in public before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpoſe of relieving the indigent widows of deceaſed Clergymen.

The Rev. Nathanael Emmons, D. D. of Franklin, is choſen to deliver the Convention Sermon in May, 1804; but, in caſe of failure, the Rev. Zedekiah Sanger, of Bridgwater, is to officiate in his ſtead.

The Convention is a voluntary Aſſociation, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, and veſted with no particular authority or control over the Churches. They have opened a friendly correſpondence with the General Aſſembly of the Preſbyterian Church, in the Middle and Southern States, and with the repreſentative bodies of the Congregational Miniſters in Connecticut, New-Hampſhire, and Vermont, for the purpoſes of communicating and receiving from them whatever may tend to promote the common intereſt of Chriſtianity.

A Standing Committee of Convention have been appointed for the purpoſe of certifying the good character and qualifications of Miniſters and Candidates who may travel into other States; and an agreement has been entered into between the Convention and the other repreſentative bodies of Miniſters in other States, mutually to communicate the names of their Committees for this purpoſe. Every certificate muſt be ſigned by one gentleman at leaſt of that Committee, from whoſe bounds the perſon recommended travels.

The Committee in MASSACHUSETTS conſiſts of the following Gentlemen.—viz.

John Eliot, D.D. of Boſton, Treaſurer.
John T. Kirkland, D. D. Scribe of the Convention.

The Convention "earneſtly recommend to all young gentlemen, who deſign to devote themſelves to the work of the miniſtry, to ſpend that portion of time in the ſtudy of divinity, which improved and judicious adviſers ſhall think neceſſary to qualify them for public teachers."

The Congregational Miniſters throughout the Commonwealth, with ſome exceptions, are aſſociated, and have regular and ſtated meetings for fellowſhip and mutual improvement. The Convention have paſſed a vote, requeſting the Moderator or Scribe of the ſeveral Aſſociations throughout the Commonwealth, to forward to the Scribe of the Convention, a correct liſt of the members of their reſpective Aſſociations, with the name of the Scribe of each, and of the Candidates licenſed by them; and have directed that the Scribe of the Convention procure the inſertion of the ſeveral liſts in the Maſſachuſetts Regiſter.

The Convention, ſolicitous to collect and preſerve accurate documents for a Hiſtory of their Churches, have paſſed a vote, that each of the Congregational Miniſters in Maſſachuſetts be requeſted to compile a hiſtory of his own Church, and of thoſe in his vicinity which may happen to be vacant, and to make returns to the Scribe of the Convention. It is hoped, this important requeſt will not paſs unnoticed, but be productive of great good.

} Pilots for the Outward Division of the Port and Harbour of Boston.

William Sayward, Pilot at Gloucester.

By a late Law of this Commonwealth, the pilotage of the harbour of Boston is formed into two divisions, Outward and Inward. The outward division consists of four branches; and the inward division consists of three branches; and no person so commissioned as a pilot, or his deputy, shall undertake to bring in or carry out of said harbour any vessel drawing nine feet of water, (coasters and fishing-vessels excepted) except in his own particular branch, under the penalty of fifty dollars.

The Governor and Council determine and fix the fees of pilotage of the several pilots for the harbour of Boston, from time to time, having respect to the different risk and hazard of the inward and outward divisions, and according as the circumstances of peace or war, and the seasons of the year, may severally require; and the same to be specified on their respective warrants. A schedule of their fees to be hung up in the Custom-House for the port of Boston and Charlestown, for public inspection and information.

General Information reſpecting Probate Buſineſs.

AN Executor ſhould notify the heirs, or perſons intereſted in a will, of the day he intends to offer it for probate, that they may have opportunity to conteſt the probate thereof, if they ſee cauſe: otherwiſe the Judge may be obliged to poſtpone proving the will, and to cite the heirs. An executor, knowing of his appointment, muſt cauſe the will to be proved within thirty days after the death of the teſtator, or preſent the ſaid will to the Probate Court, and in writing declare his refuſal: otherwiſe he may be ſubjected to a heavy fine. When a perſon dies inteſtate, the widow, or next of kin to the deceaſed, (if of age) ſhould, within thirty days, take out a letter of adminiſtration, or in writing decline the truſt. Guardians muſt be appointed to minors, before the eſtate is diſtributed, and before the account of adminiſtration is allowed. When executors and adminiſtrators are prepared to exhibit their accounts of adminiſtration to the Judge for allowance, they ſhould invariably notify the perſons intereſted therein, or their guardians, to be preſent in Court at the examination thereof; unleſs the heirs and guardians will previouſly examine the account to be exhibited, and will certify thereon their approbation of it. This method may ſave much trouble and expenſe. The ſame ſteps ſhould be taken with creditors, when an eſtate is inſolvent: that is, they muſt be notified as aforeſaid, or they muſt certify as aforeſaid. Adminiſtrators who wiſh not to account with the Judge of Probate for the perſonal eſtate of the deceaſed, as the ſame ſhall be appraiſed, ſhould give notice thereof, at the time they return the inventory, and then obtain an order for the ſale of the whole, or ſuch part thereof, as the Judge ſhall direct; and the heirs alſo, if they apprehend the perſonal eſtate is appraiſed too low, ſhould repreſent the ſame to the Judge, and requeſt to have it ſold at public auction, or at private ſale, as will beſt ſerve the intereſt of all perſons concerned.

CURE FOR THE STONE.

[A Negro diſcloſed the following, on his freedom.]

TAKE one gill of the expreſſed juice of horſemint, and one gill of red onion juice, every morning and evening, till the cure is perfected. White onions will not have the ſame effect as red; and in order to obtain the juice of the latter, they may be cut in thin ſlices, well ſalted, and bruiſed between two pewter plates. It is, however, the juice of the horſemint, which poſſeſſes the moſt virtue in this diſorder; and a ſtrong decoction of this will generally, in time, effect a cure.

where ſuch pickled fiſh or ſalted proviſions have not been inſpected and marked, agreeable to the laws of the reſpective States, where ſuch laws are in force. Such bounty is payable in ſix months from the date of the bond to be given and in no caſe, unleſs the certificates of landing at a foreign port, as in other caſes, are produced. The bond to be in double the amount of ſuch bounty—conditioned that the ſame ſhall be landed and left at ſome foreign port.

FORM of entry of intended to be exported for the benefit of bounty, by in the whereof is Maſter, bound for

Marks as branded on the caſks.	Number of barrels.	Deſcript. and ſpecies of fiſh or proviſions.	Quality.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

The want of certificates of diſtilled ſpirits, wines or teas, ſubject ſuch articles to ſeizure, and fifty dollars fine, if ſuch certificates are not delivered to the purchaſer; and if any caſk, cheſt, veſſel or caſe, containing ſuch articles, ſhall be found in the poſſeſſion of any perſon, without being marked, and not being accompanied with a certificate, the ſame is liable to ſeizure.

On the ſale of any caſk, &c. which has been marked, the marks to be defaced in preſence of ſome officer of inſpection or cuſtoms; and the certificate of the ſame to be delivered up, under penalty of one hundred dollars, with coſts of ſuit.

Goods from foreign ports, not to be unladen but between ſun-riſe and ſun-ſet, without ſpecial licenſe, under a penalty of four hundred dollars on the maſter, and every other perſon concerned, diſability from holding any office under the government of the United States for ſeven years, and being advertiſed in the newſpapers, with forfeiture of the goods; and if above four hundred dollars, value of veſſel and apparel.

Goods removed before gauged, and weighed, and if wines, ſpirits or teas, before being marked, without permiſſion, are forfeited.

Perſons giving or offering a bribe, forfeit from two hundred to two thouſand dollars. Inſpectors and officers of revenue cutters may go on board, examine and ſearch veſſels, have acceſs to the cabin, and ſeal packages; and after ſunſet ſecure hatches, &c. Perſons in charge of veſſels, for breaking faſtenings, but in preſence of an officer, forfeit two hundred dollars.

Officers may ſeize within or without their diſtricts. Perſons reſiſting or impeding them, forfeit four hundred dollars.

The maſter or commander of any veſſel, that ſhall obſtruct or hinder (or be the cauſe thereof) any officer of the revenue, in going on board his ſhip or veſſel, for the purpoſe of carrying into effect any of the revenue laws of the United States, forfeits from fifty to five hundred dollars.

Every owner of a veſſel, residing within the limits of the United States, to ſwear to the regiſter within ninety days after its being granted, or it becomes void, and the veſſel and cargo pays foreign tonnage and duty.

Returned Cargo.

(If any articles of an outward cargo are brought back, they are to be detailed, ſpecified by whom ſhipped outward, and to whom conſigned inward.)

For the Information of Merchants in the Diſtrict of Boſton and Charleſtown.

ALL bonds given on the exportation of merchandize, entitled to a drawback, muſt be put in ſuit as they become due, unleſs by prior application to the Comptroller, longer time ſhall be given to procure the neceſſary evidence that the merchandize exported was landed in a foreign port, captured or loſt.

That no document of landing merchandize in a foreign port, entitled to a drawback, can be received, however regular, after the bond becomes due, unleſs ſatisfactory reaſons are aſſigned for the delay.

That the exporter of all ſalted proviſions and pickled fiſh, entitled to bounty, cannot claim it, unleſs the evidence of the delivery of the fiſh and proviſions, in a foreign port, is tendered before his bond, given at the time of exportation, becomes due, excepting in thoſe caſes where ſatisfactory reaſons are aſſigned for the delay, or a farther time granted by the Comptroller for obtaining evidence of the landing of the proviſions or fiſh, in a foreign port.

That no debenture can be iſſued on the exportation of merchandize, unleſs the exporter ſhall, within ten days after the clearance of the veſſel, complete thoſe papers which the law makes neceſſary to his being entitled to a drawback.

Should any merchant in this diſtrict be conſcious that he has bonds in the Cuſtom-Houſe, now due, given on the exportation of merchandize, or of pickled fiſh, or of ſalted proviſions, he will conſider how intereſting it is to him, to have them cancelled without further delay.
